

Iain Barrowman

A driven HCPC registered Physiotherapist, Strength & Conditioning coach and MSK Therapist who provides face-to-face and telehealth consultations for clients seeking help with various musculoskeletal conditions (MSK) as well as providing online coaching. Supports a diverse range of clients constantly striving to deliver the most effective results, regularly help clients to achieve their fitness goals and prepare them for the next level so that they reach their fullest potential. A driven and hardworking MSK Therapist with outstanding communication skills and a first-class honours degree in Physiotherapy. Is committed to building win-win relationships with clients through a professional and thorough approach to all endeavours.

Master Instructor OMT Training since 2018.